

PRESS RELEASE:
New Titles. July – September 2009

Plan your summer with Rough Guides

Rough Guide to Clean Breaks is a new book providing 500 ways to see the world - unusual, alternative and incredible experiences that make a real difference to the local people and to the planet. Riding with cowboys in Venezuela, learning to dance in Rio, chilling in a Provençal treehouse... these are just a few of the 500 'Clean Breaks' featured in this book.

Other new guides this summer include The Rough Guide to Istanbul. The only city in the world to straddle two continents, this ancient Byzantine world capital is unique in its location and rich history and culture. From the awe inspiring domes of the Aya Sofya to the delicate mosaics in the Kariye Museum or the best places to enjoy apple tea with the locals, this new guide has all you need!

A few things not to miss in Istanbul:

The Aya Sofya – the most important Byzantine building in the world

Istanbul Modern – Istanbul's answer to the Tate Modern

Dessert Time – Join the sweet-toothed turks and tuck into some lokum (Turkish delight)

The Grand Bazaar – This is the largest covered Bazaar in the world

The Blue Mosque – The imposing bulk of the Blue Mosque dominates the Istanbul skyline

Visiting a hamam – A wonderfully relaxing and cleansing way to round off a day sightseeing

Nightlife – The Beyoglu area of the city is justly famed for its bars, live music and clubs
